

I strongly oppose weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I am often working at home and unwanted calls would distract me a lot. Current Indiana's law works very well and there is absolutely no reason to change it.